

Notice Of Appeal

ATTENTION

PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING BEFORE FILING AN APPLICATION FOR A ZONING VARIANCE

Most people think that when they submit a request for a variance to the Zoning Board of Appeals, it will automatically be granted. This is not true. The Zoning Board of Appeals is required by state law to support its decisions with evidence of "practical difficulty."

In order to prove your property is entitled to a variance, you should be prepared to show it meets the conditions listed below:

1. That special conditions or circumstances exist which are peculiar to the land, structure or building involved and which are not applicable to other lands, structures or buildings in the same zone.
2. That literal interpretation of the provisions of the Ordinance would deprive the applicant of property rights commonly enjoyed by other properties in the same zone under the terms of the Ordinance.
3. That the special conditions or circumstances do not result from the actions of the applicant.
4. That the authorizing of such variance will not be of substantial detriment to the neighboring property and will not be contrary to the spirit and purpose of the Ordinance.

Legal representation is not required at the Zoning Board public hearing. However, you may wish to retain competent, expert advice if you think you need it to support your variance request.

Although the Board is composed of seven members, only four is required for a quorum. State law mandates that you get concurrence from at least four members of the Board to approve your variance. Thus, the burden lies with the applicant to prove that the property meets the four conditions.
